“I cannot sing praises high enough for Adam Rossen. I was involved in a traffic incident that had potential criminal implications. I was very scared and I had a lot to lose. My job, my reputation, and possibly my drivers license. A fellow colleague recommended Adam. Within ten minutes, I had an appointment to talk with him about my case. Adam was so thorough in explaining my options, the impact of the situation, and his recommendations. Most importantly, he listened and genuinely cared about my concerns. Within 24 hours of retaining Adam, he had my criminal charges reduced to a traffic charge. He called me immediately to provide me with the good news. You cannot get this kind of service from a large firm. Adam takes the time to make sure his clients receive the attention they deserve. I highly recommend Adam to anyone who needs a criminal defense attorney.”

“It was the scariest experience of my life. But Adam helped me through it.”

– Manuel, 53

Manuel is an international marketing manager at a prominent electric company with eleven years of experience. One evening, a misunderstanding at home led to an argument. A neighbor who was not involved called the police. When the police arrived, Manuel immediately felt judged.

“When the police came, I thought they were there to help,” Manuel explained. “I tried explaining the situation, but they wouldn’t listen. They twisted my words, even though I told them English isn’t my first language. I felt scared and misunderstood.”

Manuel was arrested and charged with domestic violence. Shaken, worried about his children, and concerned about his reputation, he searched for help.

Online, Manuel found Mr. Rossen, whose message, “Bad things happen to good people,” resonated deeply with him. Calling Mr. Rossen was the best decision he made. After his experience with unfair treatment by the police, Manuel felt unprotected; Mr. Rossen restored his sense of security.

Adam Rossen successfully got Manuel’s case dismissed and is now helping to expunge his arrest record.

“My family and I cannot express enough gratitude to Mr. Rossen,” Manuel said. “I’ll always carry his card and recommend him without hesitation. He truly is the best!”

“I can honestly say that every case Adam took from my family came out the way we wanted or even better. We were so comfortable calling him again and again because of the way he took care of us. We trust him.”

– Natalie W.

“I was like a chicken without a head when my case was given as I didn’t know what to do but once spoken with Adam he was able to give it to me straight and honest. He told me exactly what he will do and what he would like to accomplish as my lawyer. He got all tickets dismissed and helped me get my license reinstated. His loyalty, honesty and trustworthiness is worth more than anything. Adam is a great man and lawyer and will always do to get the best results for you. I have suggested him to others already and never regret ever hiring him for my case.”

I was always skeptical of lawyers, but Adam changed that.”

–Michael, 49

Michael, a family man with six children, was close to earning a promotion when a DUI threatened to ruin everything. One night, Michael and another driver tried merging into the same lane and accidentally sideswiped each other. When they pulled over, the police were called, and Michael was arrested for a DUI without a Breathalyzer test. In reality, he had only had a couple of beers and was well below the legal limit.

Initially hesitant to hire a lawyer, Michael’s opinion changed when he met Adam Rossen. “Adam explained every step clearly and kept me informed throughout the case,” Michael said. “I trusted him completely.”

Adam discovered that the police officers were unsure who was at fault in the accident, which helped reduce Michael’s DUI charge to reckless driving. “Without Adam, I wouldn’t be where I am today,” Michael expressed.

With this issue behind him, Michael earned his promotion to Assistant Manager at Sherwin Williams, where he enjoys helping clients choose colors. He stopped drinking, focusing instead on his career and family. Even though the case is over, Michael’s relationship with Adam continues.

“Adam sends me a card every holiday to check on me. He’s more than just a lawyer; he’s become a family friend.”

“Adam made me feel comfortable about my situation. he also stays on top of me. sometimes you need someone guiding you in the right direction and he always does that for me. Adam kept me out of jail.”

– Jesus P.

“Mr. Rossen and his team are outstanding and clearly some of the best in the field, based on my experience. Throughout the course of my consultations, I came to know Mr. Rossen as an extremely knowledgeable and experienced attorney. His approach was realistic coupled with optimism. I was given the entire, bigger picture, before focusing on the specifics of my case, which gave me a sound understanding of the whole, and confidence in Mr. Rossen’s ability to pursue my case. I wish that I came to Adam Rossen’s office earlier for professional assistance. That could have saved tons of sleepless nights and gray hairs. I appreciate their office for being approachable, extremely professional and pushing relentlessly for the success of my filing. I can’t thank them enough. Highly recommended!”

– Pedro

“Adam fought
so hard for me.
He was worth
every penny.”

– Keden, 21

Keden, a Florida native, is a family-oriented person who lives with his parents and younger sister. Growing up with a passion for auto mechanics, especially semis, he eventually landed a job at Dodge handling auto trade-ins. He was a diligent worker and well-liked by his managers. However, one day Keden made a poor decision he deeply regrets.

He removed the stereo system from a truck his friend had traded in and was caught on a security camera. Confronted by his managers, Keden immediately admitted his mistake, returned the stereo, and fully cooperated. Despite his cooperation, he was still arrested for burglary.

Although his mother advised against hiring a lawyer due to past negative experiences, Keden decided to trust Adam Rossen, who came highly recommended. Since Keden had never been in trouble before, Adam fought to get him into a diversion program.

“Adam never took no for an answer,” Keden said. “He fought hard and guided me through the entire process, making me feel comfortable the whole way.”

Adam’s determination paid off, and Keden successfully entered the diversion program. With his legal issues resolved, Keden now works in yacht maintenance, applying his mechanical expertise to luxury yacht engines.

Frustrated, Charles turned to Adam Rossen, recommended by a friend. Adam was upfront, clear, and easy to communicate with, patiently answering Charles’ many questions. “Adam always gave me straight answers and made me feel secure,” Charles said.

Adam successfully had Charles’ license reinstated and helped him avoid severe jail time. “Before Adam, I didn’t realize how crucial a good lawyer is,” Charles shared. “Now, I know if I face trouble, Adam is trustworthy and always in my corner. Hiring Adam felt like winning the lawyer lottery.”

“What has kept me with Adam for the past 10 years is his loyalty, diligence, and being the best attorney I can find. He always delivers great results and really cares about his clients. He’s become like a family friend.”

– Christian

“On May 2016 I violated probation on a new charge. I sat six months in jail with no clarity as to what will happen. I started to get desperate and worried about my sentence. My family and I started to realize our public defender was not doing as much as she could. In November 2016 we got a little worried because with the way things were going I was not going to be able to be home for the holidays. My family and I got desperate so we started looking for attorneys. We hired Adam the second week of November 2016. We already knew it might not be possible to get me out by thanksgiving, but we had hope for Christmas. And just like that ADAM EXCEEDED OUR EXPECTATIONS. I got out by thanksgiving. By march 2017, we ended my case with credit time served and NO PROBATION. If you’re looking for a good quality attorney that will give your case attention and care, I recommend Adam.”

– Miguel

“Adam saw that this is not who I am, it’s something that I did.”

– Sarah T.

A few years ago, Sarah was caught shoplifting, something completely out of character for her. “I come from a straight-A background, and no one could believe I’d done it,” Sarah explained. Ashamed and scared, she began searching for an attorney and found Adam Rossen through online reviews.

“When I met Adam, I knew immediately he was the right lawyer for me,” Sarah said. Adam showed compassion and validated her feelings, recognizing how seriously she took her mistake. He successfully enrolled Sarah in a theft diversion program, resulting in all charges being dropped.

Even after the case ended, Sarah struggled to forgive herself, so Adam recommended a trusted therapist. “Adam genuinely cared about my well-being, not just the legal issue,” Sarah expressed. With therapy, Sarah overcame her fear and regained confidence, thriving in her career and family life. Grateful, she said, “Adam has been incredibly supportive, and I’m thankful I found him.”

“Adam guided me through every step of the process and told me what I should be expecting. The results of my case were great. I would definitely recommend Adam. He’s a great guy and does his job perfectly.”

– Arya

“In December of 2015 up until 2017 I went through one of the toughest time periods of my life. I’m not one to have frequent run-ins with the law and I’m fairly new to the ins and outs of the legal system and what is to be expected. Unfortunately the odds were stacked against me due to ignorance of my rights and the procedures of road side test and DUI arrest. My attorney Adam Rossen made sure I was always one step ahead of the game. In fact he made sure I went through all of the necessary steps and requirements beforehand. Otherwise, I would have had a pile of tasks, a pile of fees and a load of stress. I’ve even had the toughest time with the DMV and acquiring my hardship license but thanks to Adam’s diligence and determination it was taken care of. Adam even spoke directly to the supervisor on my behalf to make sure my case was treated with respect. DUI’s or any other legal issue for that matter, are never easy and can be a huge hassle to deal with and for this very reason is why you need an attorney you can depend on. I honestly could not have had a better attorney to keep my mind at ease and reassure me that his unfortunate time in my life would soon pass.”

– Claude

Justice isn't automatic—you need a winning team on your side. At Rossen Law Firm, we take on the toughest cases for good people facing life's hardest moments. With a track record of success and a commitment to results, we turn legal battles into victories.

“I live out of state,
so for me his responsiveness was huge“

– Lisa M.

When Lisa’s son faced a serious felony accusation, Adam Rossen came highly recommended to help navigate their difficult situation. “Having a lawyer meant something had gone wrong,” Lisa said. “Working in healthcare, I deal with wellness, so this felt especially tough.”

Lisa emphasized the importance of trusting her attorney, and Adam provided the reassurance she needed. Despite living out of state, Lisa appreciated Adam’s constant availability and responsiveness. “Adam was always honest and straightforward,” she explained. “He clearly explained every detail without unrealistic promises.”

Adam handled her son’s case exceptionally well, leaving Lisa impressed and grateful. “I will absolutely recommend Adam to others,” she shared. “He truly made a difficult time manageable.”

“A detective was trying to pressure me into admitting to something i didn’t do. I called Adam petrified and he used his tactics and skills and took care of it. When I need a lawyer he’s my go to because he’s the best of the bunch.”

– Cory S.

“My arrest happened in 2008. I tried to get it sealed on my own but I never completed the process. I never wanted to talk about my arrest. For years, I pretended like it never happened. One day, I didn’t get a job I applied for because of my background. That was the day I found Mr. Rossen on Avvo. I scheduled a consultation. Right then and there I knew I had to hire him. He communicated with me every step of the way. He was honest and genuine. There were times when I wanted to give up and he wouldn’t let me. As I write this review, I’m fighting back tears. Mr. Rossen gave me my confidence, smile, and life back. I will definitely refer anyone who needs an attorney to Adam Rossen!”

– Shelly V.

“What I expected to be a scary and horrifying experience was quick and painless. I am truly blown away by his professionalism.”

– Cory

My son backed into a car in a parking lot and left the scene due to no owner present. A witness took down his license plate and reported him. Soon after, he received a letter that he is now facing criminal charges for a hit and run incident. So, a 23 yr old who had never been in trouble, was scared to death at facing some serious charges. As a Paralegal myself, I researched many attorneys and asked friends for references. It was ultimately a google search and great reviews that led me to Attorney Rossen.

I first called Adams office early morning prepared to a leave a message. To my surprise someone answered. They were so polite and courteous. They took my information and said they would return my call shortly. My call was returned within 5 minutes by Adam himself! He allowed me to explain the situation and politely answered all my questions.

He proceeded to ask me to send all information that the police dept had sent so that he may quickly respond to the Detective. It was a relief to hear he was just as eager as I was to get the ball rolling. He also asked if my son could come in that afternoon for a consultation. Bottom line.... Within a 72 hour period, Adam had all criminal investigation activity by the Fort Lauderdale Police dropped! Had the charges decreased to two tickets and 4 hr traffic school. There is one thing i have learned in the legal field: never settle for a mediocre Attorney and never put you or your family's fate in the hands of an amateur.

As small as a situation may seem, with the wrong attorney, it can blow up in your face and the system can turn against you in a blink of an eye. I was not going to risk that with my child.

Remember, you get one chance and there is only one person you should call to your defense.... Call Adam Rossen.
