"I cannot sing praises high enough for Adam Rossen. I was involved in a traffic incident that had potential criminal implications. I was very scared and I had a lot to lose. My job, my reputation, and possibly my drivers license.

A fellow colleague recommended Adam. Within ten minutes, I had an appointment to talk with him about my case. Adam was so thorough in explaining my options, the impact of the situation, and his recommendations. Most importantly, he listened and genuinely cared about my concerns. Within 24 hours of retaining Adam, he had my criminal charges reduced to a traffic charge. He called me immediately to provide me with the good news. You cannot get this kind of service from a large firm. Adam takes the time to make sure his clients receive the attention they deserve. I highly recommend Adam to anyone who needs a criminal defense attorney."

"It was the scariest experience of my life. But Adam helped me through it."

- Manuel, 53

Manuel is an international marketing manager at a prominent electric company with eleven years of experience under his belt. A misunderstanding with a domestic dispute led to the police being called by an outside party not even involved in the argument. When the police arrived, Manuel felt he was judged guilty from the moment they entered his home.

"When the police came, I thought they were there to help. I tried to explain the situation but they wouldn't even listen to me. They made assumptions. They twisted my words even after I told them English isn't my first language. I felt awful. I was so scared."

Manuel was then arrested on charges of domestic violence. Shaken from his dehumanizing experience with the police, worried about his children, and knowing that both his personal and professional reputation were on the line, Manuel went in search of help.

"I went to the internet and look at the lawyers with the best reviews and I read "Bad things happen to good people". I chose to call Mr. Rossen and it was the best decision I could make. I felt unprotected after I saw how the police can be abusive with any person, violate their rights and there is nothing you can do about it. Mr. Rossen helped me to feel again protected."

Adam managed to get the case dismissed, and is now in the process of having the record expunged.

"Me and my family cannot express our gratitude to Mr. Rossen for all his help. His card will remain always on my wallet and I will not hesitate to recommend him to anybody who needs a good lawyer to protect him and represent him. He is the best!"

"I can honestly say that every case Adam took from my family came out the way we wanted or even better. We were so comfortable calling him again and again because of the way he took care of us. We trust him."

"I was like a chicken without a head when my case was given as I didn't know what to do but once spoken with Adam he was able to give it to me straight and honest. He told me exactly what he will do and what he would like to accomplish as my lawyer. He got all tickets dismissed and helped me get my license reinstated. His loyalty, honesty and trustworthiness is worth more than anything. Adam is a great man and lawyer and will always do to get the best results for you. I have suggested him to others already and never regret ever hiring him for my case."

“It was the scariest experie“I was always skeptical of lawyers, but Adam changed that.”

-Michael, 49

A family man with six children to support, Michael was up for a promotion when a DUI threatened to derail his progress and set him back years.

While out driving one night, Michael and another driver were trying to merge into the same lane at the same time and ended up sideswiping each other. They pulled over and the cops were called. Without administering a Breathalyzer test, the police arrested Michael for a DUI. Michael had only had a couple of beers and would have tested well under the legal limit.

Michael didn't trust lawyers and wasn't sure about consulting an attorney after his arrest. But when he found Adam, his opinion shifted.

“Adam educated me on every step of the process. He kept me updated throughout the case and made me feel comfortable. I trusted him.” Adam persevered and was able to get the police officers to admit they did not know who was at fault in the car accident. Michael's DUI charge was knocked down to reckless driving.

“Without Adam's help I wouldn't be where I am today.” With this incident behind him, Michael earned his promotion to Assistant Manager at Sherwin Williams, where he is currently satisfying his artistic side helping clients choose the right colors for their homes. He's also stopped drinking, and is focused on his family and his career. And even though his case is over, his relationship with Adam is not.

“Adam sends me a card every holiday to make sure I'm being responsible. He's more than a lawyer, he's become a family friend.”

"Mr. Rossen and his team are outstanding and clearly some of the best in the field, based on my experience. Throughout the course of my consultations, I came to know Mr. Rossen as an extremely knowledgeable and experienced attorney. His approach was realistic coupled with optimism. I was given the entire, bigger picture, before focusing on the specifics of my case, which gave me a sound understanding of the whole, and confidence in Mr. Rossen's ability to pursue my case. I wish that I came to Adam Rossen's office earlier for professional assistance. That could have saved tons of sleepless nights and gray hairs. I appreciate their office for being approachable, extremely professional and pushing relentlessly for the success of my filing. I can't thank them enough. Highly recommended!"

“Adam fought so hard for me. He was worth every penny.”

- Keden, 21

A Florida native, Keden is a family person who lives with his parents and younger sister. Growing up with a passion for auto mechanics (particularly semis) he eventually landed a job at Dodge working in auto trade-ins, where he was a diligent worker well liked by his managers.

One day Keden made a poor decision that he regrets to this day. He removed the stereo system from one of the trucks that his friend had traded in. He was caught on the security camera and called into his manager’s office where they confronted him. Keden admitted to removing the system, returned it, and agreed to cooperate in any way possible. They still had him arrested for burglary.

“My mom told me not to get a lawyer. She’d been burned before.”

But Keden decided to go with Adam, who came recommended to him. Keden had never been in trouble before, so Adam fought to get him into a diversion program. But the managers at Dodge refused.

“Adam was not going to take no for an answer. He fought so hard to get me into that diversion program. He really walked me through the whole process and made me feel comfortable the entire way through. He was really fighting for me.”

Adam’s perseverance paid off. He got Keden into the diversion program. Now, with his legal troubles behind him, Keden has taken on a new challenge, yacht maintenance. He’s applying his mechanic expertise to fixing and maintaining the engine quality of luxury yachts.

"I hired Attorney Rossen to support me as the victim of stalking and a criminal mischief incidents. Mr. Rossen is attentive, thorough, caring and professional all at the same time.

With equal parts of grits and finesse he maneuvered through the Order of Protection hearing proceedings. The Judge ruled in my favor and I believe the successful outcome was contributed to by a combination of Adam's expertise, professionalism, and persistence. It was a case where courage, integrity and wisdom prevailed."

"I was able to sleep easy in jail knowing i had adam representing me."

- Charles H.

After a series of traffic violations, Charles was at risk of losing his driver's license, which in South Florida is akin to losing your freedom. The first lawyer Charles worked with mishandled his case, and Charles ended up with multiple felony charges all from a suspended driver's license— something that was easily avoidable.

"I had another lawyer before Adam, and he was terrible. My license got suspended and my lawyer could have prevented it from happening but he didn't. And he never told me anything about what was going on."

Knowing he was frustrated, a friend of Charles' referred him to Adam. "Adam was straightforward, upfront, and very easy to work with. He tells you the facts all the time. I was young and antsy and had a lot of questions. Adam always had satisfying answers for me."

Adam was able to get Charles' license reinstated and help him avoid serious jail time. "Before I met Adam I never really knew how important a lawyer was, but now I'm secure, and I know if something happens to me I have someone trustworthy in my corner. If you don't know anything about the law, Adam is the best person to work with. It's like winning the lawyer lottery."

"the police gave me a hard time because i don't speak english very well. adam caught the police in their lies and proved i was innocent. the case was dropped and i couldn't be happier."

- Hoa lu

I hired Adam after I first want to court and tried to handle my case with a public defender. I quickly realized I needed an expert to represent me. I blew a .14 and needed the best. Long story short, Adam was able to get the charges reduced to reckless driving after catching the cops in their lies. He was always very responsive to me whenever I had an issue which I had plenty. Both my parents passed away back in my home country and I had to go back there for 3 months. Adam took care of everything for me and I'm so grateful. I would definitely recommend Adam to anyone who gets in trouble for any kind of case.

"Without Adam i know i would have lost my son to the system."

- Beverly A.

When Beverly's son, Denzel, was arrested on a misdemeanor weed charge, the first attorney she hired made the situation even worse.

"I was so upset I wasn't thinking straight. Being out of state made it even harder. I hired the first attorney I found without checking any reviews. He was awful. I could never get him on the phone; I always had to speak with his secretary who wasn't able to answer all the questions I had. He gave me no details on how he was handling the case. It was so frustrating."

When a friend of Beverly's recommended Adam, she called him right away. "I called him late in the evening because I was desperate. He called me back right away and was so personable. I decided to go with Adam and it was the best decision I could have made. He always spoke with me directly, I never had to go through a secretary, and he always responded within 24 hours."

Adam got Denzel's case moved to drug court. Still depressed from the loss of his father, Denzel had some ups and downs, testing positive a couple of times while in drug court.

"Even when he messed up Adam would always tell the judge how much he believed in Denzel, and to please give him another chance. Without Adam I would have lost my son to the system."

Denzel was put in therapeutic counseling where he excelled with excellent attendance, participation, and clean test results. He is now set to graduate from drug court and even thanked Adam in his graduation essay.

"My son was so happy with Adam. In his essay he said of Adam: 'I was lost and you found me. And I thank you for that.' I am forever grateful to Adam and would recommend him any day."

"what has kept me with adam for the past 10 years is his loyalty, diligence, and being the best attorney i can find. he always delivers great results and really cares about his clients. he's become like a family friend."

- Christian

"On May 2016 I violated probation on a new charge. I sat six months in jail with no clarity as to what will happen. I started to get desperate and worried about my sentence. My family and I started to realize our public defender was not doing as much as she could. In November 2016 we got a little worried because with the way things were going I was not going to be able to be home for the holidays. My family and I got desperate so we started looking for attorneys. We hired Adam the second week of November 2016. We already knew it might not be possible to get me out by thanksgiving, but we had hope for Christmas. And just like that ADAM EXCEEDED OUR EXPECTATIONS. I got out by thanksgiving. By march 2017, we ended my case with credit time served and NO PROBATION. If you're looking for a good quality attorney that will give your case attention and care, I recommend Adam."

"Adam saw that this is not who I am, it's something that I did."

- Sarah T.

A few years ago Sarah got caught shoplifting. "It's not something I would ever do. I come from a straight A background. Ask anyone in my life and they'll tell you 'Sarah would NEVER do that.'"

When I got caught I felt like my life was over. How could I do that?"

Scared, and ashamed of her own actions, Sarah went in search of an attorney. After doing some online research and reading Adam's reviews on AVVO, she scheduled an appointment with Adam.

"When I met with him I knew he was the right person for me. I'm sure for him this charge was minor, but I'm a perfectionist, so for me this slip up was HUGE. Adam was compassionate. He validated my feelings and made me feel comfortable."

Adam was able to get Sarah into the theft diversion program. All charges against Sarah were dropped. But even though the case was over, Sarah was still unable to forgive herself for what she had done, so Adam recommended a therapist he trusts to her.

"Adam was interested in my well-being, not just the case. The therapist he sent me to is amazing. I'd hear police sirens and get super scared, but she helped me move forward with my life." Sarah has since been able to put this incident behind her and is thriving in both her career and family life.

"One year after the case I still had a question about it, so I called Adam. He told me to go ahead and come right in. He's so helpful and has taken such great care of me throughout this whole ordeal. I'm so thankful I found him."

"Adam guided me through every step of the process and told me what i should be expecting. the results of my case were great. i would definitely recommend adam. he's a great guy and does his job perfectly."

- Arya

In December of 2015 up until 2017 I went through one of the toughest time periods of my life. I'm not one to have frequent run-ins with the law and I'm fairly new to the ins and outs of the legal system and what is to be expected. Unfortunately the odds were stacked against me due to ignorance of my rights and the procedures of road side test and DUI arrest. My attorney Adam Rossen made sure I was always one step ahead of the game. In fact he made sure I went through all of the necessary steps and requirements beforehand. Otherwise, I would have had a pile of tasks, a pile of fees and a load of stress. I've even had the toughest time with the DMV and acquiring my hardship license but thanks to Adam's diligence and determination it was taken care of. Adam even spoke directly to the supervisor on my behalf to make sure my case was treated with respect. DUI's or any other legal issue for that matter, are never easy and can be a huge hassle to deal with and for this very reason is why you need an attorney you can depend on. I honestly could not have had a better attorney to keep my mind at ease and reassure me that his unfortunate time in my life would soon pass.

- Claude

" I live out of state, so for me his responsiveness was huge "

- Lisa M.

When Lisa's son was accused of committing a serious felony, Adam came highly recommended and was there to help navigate a difficult situation.

"You don't want to have a lawyer. It means something is wrong. I work in the health field and it's the healthy. So it's already an unhappy alliance, which makes having someone you trust and feel comfortable with even more important. And for me Adam was that person. Anytime I needed to speak with him he made himself available. I live out of state, so for me his responsiveness was huge.

His honesty was refreshing too. He always explained the situation without setting unrealistic expectations. He handled my son's case admirably and I will be referring many clients to him."

"a detective was trying to pressure me into admitting to something i didn't do. i called adam petrified and he used his tactics and skills and took care of it. when i need a lawyer he's my go to because he's the best of the bunch."

"My arrest happened in 2008. I tried to get it sealed on my own but I never completed the process. I never wanted to talk about my arrest. For years, I pretended like it never happened. One day, I didn't get a job I applied for because of my background. That was the day I found Mr. Rossen on Avvo. I scheduled a consultation. Right then and there I knew I had to hire him. He communicated with me every step of the way. He was honest and genuine. There were times when I wanted to give up and he wouldn't let me. As I write this review, I'm fighting back tears. Mr. Rossen gave me my confidence, smile, and life back. I will definitely refer anyone who needs an attorney to Adam Rossen!"

"What i expected to be a scary and horrifying experience was quick and painless. I am truly blown away by his professionalism."

- Cory

My son backed into a car in a parking lot and left the scene due to no owner present. A witness took down his license plate and reported him. Soon after, he received a letter that he is now facing criminal charges for a hit and run incident. So, a 23 yr old who had never been in trouble, was scared to death at facing some serious charges.

As a Paralegal myself, I researched many attorneys and asked friends for references. It was ultimately a google search and great reviews that led me to Attorney Rossen. I first called Adams office early morning prepared to a leave a message. To my surprise someone answered. They were so polite and courteous. They took my information and said they would return my call shortly. My call was returned within 5 minutes by Adam himself! He allowed me to explain the situation and politely answered all my questions.

He proceeded to ask me to send all information that the police dept had sent so that he may quickly respond to the Detective. It was a relief to hear he was just as eager as I was to get the ball rolling. He also asked if my son could come in that afternoon for a consultation.

Bottom line.... Within a 72 hour period, Adam had all criminal investigation activity by the Fort Lauderdale Police dropped! Had the charges decreased to two tickets and 4 hr traffic school.

There is one thing i have learned in the legal field: never settle for a mediocre Attorney and never put you or your family's fate in the hands of an amateur. As small as a situation may seem, with the wrong attorney, it can blow up in your face and the system can turn against you in a blink of an eye. I was not going to risk that with my child.

Remember, you get one chance and there is only one person you should call to your defense.... Call Adam Rossen.
